Summary

---

Macy Queen, the main character just lost her father. In order to cope with her father's death she spends her time helping her mom at work and hanging out with her boyfriend, Jason Talbot. One day Jason leaves to summer camp and Macy becomes anxious because she has to spend the whole summer without two of the most important people in her life. Worst of all, while he is in the camp he breaks up with her through an email. Macy experiences depression and anger. All summer she is stuck in a library working with some new friends; Delia, Kristy, Monica and Wes. As Wes and Macy become closer something worse heads their way.

Quote #1

“Everyone else could get through to my mother: all they had to do was dial a number and wait for her to pick up. If only, I thought, it was that easy for me”

Macy was saying this referring to obviously her mother. This quote really stood out to me because many times we often treat strangers better than we treat family members. It's kind of an instinct because making a first impression is everything. Strangers may come and go but family is always going to be there, regardless if you have a bad relationship with them or not.

“It was the best thing we had in common, the one part of him that was all mine”.

In the book, Macy lost her dad and a hobby that they both share was the passion for running. I liked this quote because I found it touching. Macy and her dad had what appeared as an unbreakable bond. Running held them together, just like how some of my hobbies hold the people close to me together.

What Did I think of It

I thought that this book was absolutely beautifully written. Being able to see the perspective of all the different characters in the book is really interesting. I also read some of Sarah Dessen's books so I'm not surprised that I actually really enjoyed reading this book. Personally I love reading romance novels

Recommendation

Yes! I would definitely recommend this book to any young readers who like reading romance books. The author, Sarah Dessen has this way of writing that actually makes you feel the same emotions that the main character is feeling. It's weird but it gets you even more engaged in the book. However, I do not recommend this book to anyone who prefers not to read any lovey dovey romance novels because this book is one of those.
